Dear Executive Director Flynn,

I am writing to you to ask for your support! The Northfield Police Officers' Association, NEPBA Local 406 has got involved with the New England Craft Beer Open. All profits from the event go to support the Cystic Fibrosis Lifestyle Foundation (CFLF). CFLF assists people living with Cystic Fibrosis in providing avenues toward healthy and active lifestyles through recreation, thereby empowering and educating people with Cystic Fibrosis on the critical psychological, social, and emotional connections between their lifestyle and their health.

The New England Craft Beer Open is a golf tournament is run by craft beverage industry. On September 16th the craft beverage producers, fans of craft beer, restaurants/bars, and distributors throughout the region will come together for a day, put aside competitive differences and make complete fools of each other on the golf course. The event starts with a scramble golf tournament (which includes beer on a number of holes, prizes, games and more) concluding with a dinner reception.

In order to help the Cystic Fibrosis Lifestyle Foundation (CFLF) to continue with their endeavors, the Northfield Police Officers' Association, NEPBA Local 406 asking for your support.

Please join us for the New England Craft Beer Open Golf Tournament on Saturday, September 16, 2017, at 10:00 a.m. at Sugarbush Resort Gold Club in Warren, Vermont.
